“ Sharon is a friend going back to 1970. Though we have only been pen buddies, we have shared in each others lives through the good and the bad. It is with such deep sorrow that I have to tell my friend to hold onto her faith. To believe that the veil between this and the next is thin. I have shared in the birth of her children, her grand children and now so sadly in this loss. May God comfort you, your children and help you in the moments coming. Knowing that you are in my thoughts won't be much help, but there I am anyway.

“ This picture of Dick is so appropriate to his character. Such a loving, caring man. Many others here have spoken to the many qualities of Dick's character. Sharon and Dick entered my life in the 80's. We have lived life together since then as best friends. What a blessing to have them in my and my family's life. May Dick rest in peace, the peace of Jesus' presence. Tim and I will miss him dearly here as we look forward to the joy of spending eternity with him. Sandy Shaub

“ I always appreciated how kind Richard was to me. Richard was such a caring man. His honesty and integrity were on a platform like no other. Richards love for his family was no doubt his top priority. I am very thankful to god that I knew Richard and his family and I pray for their continued comfort during this tremendous loss. Heaven gained an amazing man. Prayers.

“ I had the honor the past 43 years of being related to Dick as his brother in law. Dick was a hard working, trusting honest man. Always willing to drop what he was doing to help me or someone else with a task. He instilled his great qualities into his children, Aaron and Cory. My sister Sharon is lucky to have spent the time she did with him. I know she will always cherish their time together.
