“ *Donna and I spent a few weeks with Rick every winter in Florida. Going out to eat and going to the candy outlet where he always had purchased something for my wife. He was always generous and we had many good times, eg airboat ride looking at alligators, orange groves etc. He will always be in our thoughts forever as a good friend. You will be missed. “ Rick would never call me Don, but instead called me Donnie even after being corrected many times. This continued for many years. Will miss hearing you call me that, Love Don & Tammy Schmelzer.
