July 26, 2019

Richard (Dick) J. Rousseau, 83, of Willow Street, PA went home to be in the loving arms of his Savior Friday morning, July 26, 2019 at home surrounded by his family. Born in Lancaster, PA on May 28, 1936, he was the son of the late Joseph and Mary Stauffer Rousseau. He was the husband of Martha J. (Leaman) Rousseau, with whom he celebrated 37 years of marriage.

“ We have known Dick and Marti for almost 30 years. They walked with us in those very dark days when our daughter was injured. When it was time to build a wheelchair accessible house we went straight to Dick. He was almost more happy to build this house for us than we were to be getting it. He did an awesome job and we love it. He never did anything half way. We love Dick so much and will miss him.

“ Dick Rousseau was a very kind and likable man! Hal & myself have only lived next door to he and wife, Marti for about a year and a half. They were easy to talk to, and good neighbors! Not often, but when Dick & I would run into each other while picking up our mail, we'd have a little chat. He was a gentle man, and it was good to see Dick! We will miss this gentle, kind man, and having him as a neighbor.

*May he rest with God now , who he loved so much! Our love and prayers go out to Marti and the whole Rousseau family!

“ Thank you dad Rousseau for being at all the thanksgiving day dinners. It was always a honor to have you and my father john to start the meal with the prayers. I was always deeply moved by the words of thanks you both gave. Every year I would take a step back and look around the room to see all the love and fun that we all would share. I will miss you very much. Love and admiration John E Miller Jr.
