“ Dear Carol & Family,
So sorry for your loss. My deepest Sympathy and condolences.
Dick was a great person and a friend. Stamps were our common interest but found out later that we both served USAF on KC-135s.
Dick was a Navigator and I was a Boom Operator. We were even stationed at the same base(Grissom AFB, IN) at different times. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ We are so very sorry for your loss, Carol and family. We always enjoyed our conversations with you both at stamp club functions. He was a valued member of the club, and we admired his dedication to various causes, particularly Lancaster Philatelic and the Red Rose Honor Guard. He will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Donna and Chuck Kilgore
