

Richard W. Weller

March 19, 2018

Richard W. Weller, 84, of Lancaster and formerly of Quarryville, PA, died peacefully at Elderwood Senior Living of Lancaster on Monday, March 19, 2018. Born in Lancaster, PA, Richard was the son of the late Lester and Mary Brown Weller.

Richard graduated from George Washington University with a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology and Anthropology and spent a year studying Fine Art Design. He worked as a Juvenile Probation Officer in Alexandria, VA. At one time he owned an antique shop in Marietta, PA and worked very closely with Ferne Pellman at her furniture consignment shop. He studied piano music, art, drawing, painting, and had a keen eye for interior design and landscaping. He truly enjoyed collecting antiques and playing pinochle. One of his favorite collections was his own clothing and shoes.

He was a former member of Little Britain Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his longtime friend, Ferne P. Pellman, his nephew, Terry Lee Weller, and a niece, Wendy Cunningham. He was preceded in death by his two brothers, Merle and Donald Weller.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend Richard's Memorial Service at The Groff Family Funeral & Cremation Services, Inc., 528 W. Orange Street (corner of W. Orange and Pine Sts.) Lancaster, PA on Monday, March 26, 2018 at 2:00 p.m. with The Rev. Tom Milligan officiating. The family will receive friends at The Groffs on Monday from 1:00 p.m. until time of the service. Interment will take place at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be sent to the American Cancer Society, 314 Good Drive, Lancaster, PA 17603 or Lebanon VA Medical Center, 1700 S. Lincoln Avenue, Lebanon, PA 17042 in Richard's memory.

“ I'm so sorry to hear he passed. I would have loved to attend service. I met Rich a year or so ago maybe longer at Cracker Barrel. I waited on him and the boys. We got to talking and became friends. He would visit me at CB often till he moved. He was such a sweetheart, and I'm so saddened by his passing. To his family In sorry for your loss, he will be missed!
