“ Sorry about Rick. This was indeed a shock. It was always enjoyable to chat with him at Penn Manor football games, and even to talk about the stock market. I regret not being able to attend his service because of a conflict.

“ I am so grateful that after 30 plus years that I visited with Rick back in October of 2013. It was a surprise visit while I was in the area for a conference but it was a joyous visit of catching up on old times and expressing how God had blessed our lives over the years while in college and since our college days and he being our tour guide for Lancaster County. Rick was a true friend and we understood each other and our upbringing on a dairy farm. Our friendship bonds through farming grew to where we could call each other friends and he was a great friend. Friends are a gift from God. They bring us joy and happiness and help us in times of need. That's why I can truly say How glad I am I had this friend. I know that your husband and dad will be truly be missed but the blessed assurance in that we will see him again according to God's word and our faith in him as our Lord. We send our love.
