“ P.S. It was a small world for me to come to Lancaster and eventually find out that my aunt Beatrice Lawton Ruhli was a classmate of Pat's at Nyack. I also got to work with and appreciate Pat as part of the Wycliffe Associate's group here in Lancaster. What a tremendous gal she was.

“ I am so sorry to learn that Rita has passed but I know she's so entirely happy and fulfilled with Jesus. I met Rita at Breakout Church/Ministries in Leola a couple of years ago. I was not in a good marriage but loved the Lord very much and we became friends. She was most encouraging and supportive. I enjoyed a WONDERFUL lunch and afternoon at her home. Just last week I realized that I had not heard from her and tried to call, but no answer. Just finally getting to the Sept 1 Lancaster newspaper last night, Sept 10, I now understand why she couldn't answer. I am especially sorry that I wasn't able to be at her Life Service - to truly celebrate her life and be emotionally supportive to you her family. Her love for Christ and her family and friends and her life were genuine and joyous. May your memories of her life, words and love be sweet and bring you much comfort. I am so glad that I was able to call her my friend and Sister in Christ and receive her love and care.

“ Rita was my friend for 25 years and she was always about doing and giving to others. She truly showed Jesus to everyone even when it was hard. It was a privilege to know her and I will miss her but she is surely in a better place with our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Your friend and Sister in the Lord,

Sherron Edwards and husband Bruce

“ Rita was (and still is) a saint. Pure and simple. She was 100% "other centered" and my late wife's best friend for over 30 years, providing great comfort and joy through that time of Christian friendship as well as deep love and compassion in my wife's last years. She will be sorely missed and, for those of us who remain, a source of inspiration. "Blessed are they who die in the Lord, they rest from their labors and their works live on after them." Rev. 14:13
