

Robert "Bob" W. Curley

November 13, 2024

Robert "Bob" W. Curley, 69, of New Providence, PA, passed away due to a long illness on Wednesday, November 13, 2024, with his beloved wife Deborah A. Curley by his side. He was born in Wolfeboro, New Hampshire as the son of the late Reuben M. and Florence E. (Harsh) Curley.

Before Bobs' illness he loved fishing, hunting, and boating with his stepson, and enjoyed any old western on TV.

Many knew him as "Smoking Bob" as in his spare time he was known to prepare his famous ribs and chicken dinners, his grandson continues his legacy with the techniques Bob passed on to him.

In addition to his wife, Deborah A. Curley, Bob is survived by his stepson, Matthew J. Wade of New Providence, his stepdaughter, Amy J. Martin of Willow Street, his sister, Bonnie L. Rightmire of Delta, seven grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents.

There are no services at this time, the family will gather in Bob's memory at their convenience.
