“ Brother, I miss you dearly and had a dream last night with you and our little brother Michael, we were roaming around Park City mall. How crazy was that! I suppose you and heard having a blast from the past up there in Heaven and I know your happy to be back with him and Mom, Dad Duke, Shieba, Howie, Peppie, Cocoa, Petie, Lukie lu, Brandie 1 & 2 and Nanny, Nan Nan and all 3 Pap Pap's and Joey... I'll be ok ,your the lucky one to be with all our lost loving family. I'll see you all again some day until then keep close and give big hugs and kisses to Mom, Dad, Mike and everyone else...I love you so much

“ U were always my closest favorite uncle on moms side. As I sit here at ur house I just wish u would come back any min n stay. Lila misses u, I miss u n I swear ur messing with me! First ur yellow dish rag just disappeared outta nowhere n then I thought ur kitchen light blew but came back on few minutes later, n ur dish rag is still m.i.a so if its u ok,if not then I really don't have a clue haha. Still got ur goofy voicemails on my phone. So glad I saved em. I can listen to ur goofy,playful retarded self, n best thing of both messages is that the second one the last part of it is u tkin seriously n said I love u niece 💜💜💙💚 u always did look out for me. I love u uncle Bobby k, I wanna here some drums now dammit! Play em loud as much as u want. I love u uncle Bobby k, till we meet again I hope 🙄

“ All my love and best wishes to the family. I first met “Uncle” Bob when I was a teenager. His personality was larger than life and he always knew how to have a good time. Such good memories of Bobby K. tending bar for the Tyson fight at Brandon's, being the kick ass drummer of Divided Line and father and best friend to his beloved Stafford-shire Terroir Petey. He was a great artist and one of the most talented people I have ever met. Rest in peace Uncle Bob and be sure to give Pete a kiss and hug from me.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Bob through his Sister Lucinda, who I affectionately refer to as "Cindy-Lou". She & Tommy Herr have been Dear Friends for 20 years. I also had the pleasure of buying & owning Bob's previous drum set that long ago, when he was ready to upgrade. Every time I spoke to him he'd ask if I was taking care of his old kit & was I playing it hard & with passion. I assured him I was & always upgrading it as well. The man had a great heart & we gelled in the fact that music was our first love & it would be our last. He had so much love & respect for his Sister & She for him as well. He will be sorely missed but I KNOW he'll be "up-there" banging the drum all day-Cause that's what we do! God-Bless You, Bob & your whole family as well. Regards-Mark Hess, Conestoga, Pa

“ Bob, you will be missed deeply and never will forget our friendship. Rest easy now as you have been reunited with your loved ones who past before you. I am sure Lukie was so happy to see you again and Lyla will see you again when she gets there. It is never goodbye but see you again. A great guy taken to soon. Til we meet again. See ya when I get there.

“ It is with sadness you were called home to your family in Heaven, leaving us with broken hearts, some tears that will never dry. Only God knows why as we ask why so young <3 . To his family members we are very sorry for your loss as we know it is not an easy road to travel as sometimes it never ends . May you hold dear to your hearts memories of Bob that will last forever . May God grant you peace in knowing we care and was love by many <3 . Prayers and Hugs The Duschl's Family

“ Brother, there are still no words that I can think of other than I'm so not excepting this yet... God give me the strength to move on... I Love you forever and always and do hope your already with Mom, Dad, Mike, Luke, Joe and all our grandparents. I will miss you so much until we see each other again..
Play those drums with the Angels as loud as you want now brother...And you can rest peacefully knowing Lyla will be with brother Paul in good hands. Your favorite big Sis...
