

ROBERT G. LAKE

March 30, 2012

“ABSENT FROM THE BODY,
PRESENT WITH THE LORD”

As God promises born-again believers, Robert G. Lake received his abundant entrance into Heaven on March 28, 2012 at age 87.

He is predeceased by beloved parents Norman and Helen and two infant children, Susan and Matthew.

He is survived by Ruth, wife of 44 years, son David J., husband of Jackie, grandchildren Meghan, Jonathan, and Matthew Lake, all of Lancaster; daughter Nancy of New Holland; brothers Richard, husband of Celia, of York and Daniel of Willow Street; nieces, nephews, and a host of brothers and sisters in Christ.

Bob’s legacy of unfaltering faith in God’s Truth expressed by Jesus in John 6 and 17, “I am the way, the truth, and the life” and “Thy Word is truth”, was evidenced by his vibrant relationship with the living God through the person of Christ.

He exemplified patriotic citizenship by serving his country in the U.S. Navy during World War II and displaying Old Glory at his home.

His life proved his faith, love, and confidence as he served his local church. Life verse – Romans 6:23: “For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.”

A Funeral Service will be held at Calvary Baptist Church, 530 Milton Road, Lancaster, PA 17602 on Saturday, April 7, 2012 at 10:00 a.m. Friends will be received at the church from 8:30 a.m. until the time of the service. Interment will be in Mellingers Mennonite Cemetery.
