“ Rip my awesome brother in law. I have not been the same since you went home. And I know your finally free but this wasn't suppose to be how your story ended. I will miss our phone calls our video chats. And you constantly checking in on me to see how I was doing. You were one of the only ones I had in my life who remained real. Who defended me who understood. And didn't judge. And I did the same with you. You truly are missed by so many. And I'm happy to know you made a huge difference in alot of people's life's and made them understand more about yours. You are free but I just wish our last memory together would of beem different. But it showed our loyalty to each other. And made us even more close. But we also got so many other great memories. Like me showing up at the rock concerts and you veing the one who seen me and had to make it known you were there. To you getting me hooked up with your brother and because of you giving hin my number. I got 3 children to him who resemble alit of you in a way. I knew you for 22 years is alot of time knowing eachother. Lots of memories. I love you my brother we shall be together again in next life. "You ride. I ride"

I'll put you on blast real quick. Your his mother and I cant believe you. But I'm so happy he is free. And his service was beautiful thanks to Rob.
