“ Just got the news not too long ago bro we started Stevens from t-step program to family. I'm at the giant center doing hvac bro. When took my advice and joined the hvac program I knew you respected and love me like a brother. We fought we laughed and we cried and we talked about our children. I'm gonna to miss you. You were a big piece of my heart and I'm sorry that we didn't talk so I can let you know how much I loved you big bro. The Carolina slap from me to you town. T-Step till the end. Thank you for guiding me and n my life when I needed it the most bro. Rest in peace. You m still in shock that this is real. My condolences to you and your family. Love you bro. Brandon Houston.

“ I met Rodney when I was about 7 or 8 around or on Beaver Street. We knew each other forever. He was always a brother to me. I seen him a few months ago at the courthouse after not seeing him for about 10 years or so and it was like we never skipped a beat. Much love to his family. He will definitely be missed.

“ Rodney was a former student in my Communication Arts class at McCaskey High School. He always responded positively to me and was very respectful. I learned much about determination and resilience from him. I am so proud of all that he was able to accomplish in his life. My sincere condolences and prayers go out to his mother, daughter and family. Rest well soldier 🙏👼❤️
