

Rodney E. Lattisaw, Jr.

January 15, 2025

It is with profound sadness that we announce the unexpected passing of Rodney E. Lattisaw, Jr., 39, of York, PA, on Wednesday, January 15, 2025. Born in Lancaster, PA, Rodney was a proud 2004 graduate of McCaskey High School. He was a beloved husband, father, son, brother, uncle, and friend to many.

Rodney proudly served his country as a dedicated U.S. Army veteran. Following his military career, he continued to exemplify hard work and commitment through his employment with the U.S. Postal Service.

Known for his strong work ethic and even stronger devotion to his family, Rodney cherished his role as a loving husband to his wife of seven years, Kimberly Lattisaw, and as a proud father to their two beautiful children, Lawson and Leilani. Whether working out, enjoying family time, or visiting with his mother, stepfather, and siblings, Rodney brought joy and light to those around him.

Rodney is survived by his wife, Kimberly; his children, Lawson and Leilani; his mother, Brenda Lowery (Caldwell-Lattisaw) and stepfather, Horace A. Lowery of Lancaster; his brothers, Christopher A. Caldwell and Brandon R. Sapp; his sister, Lacey J. Lattisaw; his nephew; and a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family in Maryland who will forever hold his memory in their hearts.

Rodney is preceded in death by his grandfather, Lawrence D. Lattisaw; his grandmother, Burnetta Lattisaw; his father, Rodney E. Lattisaw Sr.; and his grandmother, Annie B. Caldwell.

Rodney's life was a testament to love, strength, and service. His legacy will live on through the countless lives he touched.

He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.

“ I can't find the words to express my sadness, but I am a firm believer that God will call upon us no matter the time or our age to serve a cause in Heaven. I also know God gives us the internal strength and fortitude to get through the dark and see the warm beam of light that is Rodney's. His beam glows for ever and is seen by all. It is when we are called to God, we will then understand .

“ Dearest Rodney, Jr.,

When I tell you that I am at a loss for words, that is an understatement! My heart is SO very heavy from trying to process this HUGE void...

Beloved youngest son and precious “Baby Boy” (as I often referred to you), you will be FOREVER in my heart just as your amazing father still is! Your thunderous laugh, immeasurable strength and priceless love will sustain me for the remainder of my life! And any time I feel like it’s not enough, I can always get more from “Little Man” (Lawson) and “Gorgeous” (Leilani), your pride and your joy. What an absolute treasure you will ALWAYS be, and please know that I cannot ever thank God enough for allowing me to have the pleasure of being called your mother!

I loved you then and love you still, always have and ALWAYS WILL!

“ Rodney...words can not describe the void in my heart. Thank you for simply being you. You've taught me so much. You've had such an influence on my life. You were an absolute class act and I couldn't be more honored and privileged to have the past 33 years of my life with you as your little sister. Your legacy will always live on through your beautiful children. We love you so , so much Rodney. I'm going to miss that laugh , your sense of humor that I've adopted , and those funny little drawlings you would make. I'll carry them forever. Until we meet again. I Love you with my whole entire heart.

“ My heart was saddened to hear of the passing of Rodney. I couldn't believe it, a strong young man at the time of his age losing his life. It's not the normal way that life should go, and he will be missed. I send my deepest sympathies to Brenda, Brandon and the family and also to his wife and children were left behind. I pray that the god of heaven and Earth with no comfort or hurting hearts and eventually bring healing. From his fellow postal worker and friend Albert Santos.
