

Ronald J. Miller

June 2, 2024

Ronald J. Miller, a resident of Lancaster, peacefully passed away on Sunday, June 2, 2024 at the age of 83. Ron, or Pa, as he was affectionately known, was a diligent individual who found great joy in his professional endeavors and cherished family.

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, he was the son of the late Joseph and Ethel Lightner Miller. Ron's journey led him through various locales before he made Lancaster his home. He proudly served his country as a US Army Veteran. Throughout his remarkable 44-year tenure as a sales representative at Rockwell International (later Sensus Technologies), Ron demonstrated unwavering dedication and expertise in his field.

He was a 50-year member at Hamilton Park United Church of Christ, where he served as a deacon and a member of The Consistory.

Outside of his professional life, Ron was an avid outdoorsman, finding solace in the woodlands around State College and the serene landscapes of Canada. Whether golfing, hunting, fishing, or simply enjoying the camaraderie of his companions, Ron found immense fulfillment in these pursuits. His memberships in the Conestoga Country Club, Columbia Elks, and Ducks Unlimited underscored his passion for community and the outdoors.

Ron will be deeply missed as the beloved husband of Bonnie L. (Bertollini) with whom he recently celebrated 60 years of marriage. Together they built a family filled with love and laughter. Ron was the devoted father of Ronda M. Anderson (Rodney), Christopher J. (Ruth) Miller, and Russell B. (Kelly) Miller. His grandchildren were his pride and joy, and his legacy will continue to grow through John, William, Veronica, and R.J.

Relatives and friends are invited to honor Ron's memory at Hamilton Park United Church of Christ, 1210 Maple Avenue, Lancaster, PA 17603, on Saturday, June 8, 2024 at 11:00 a.m. The family will greet guests at the church from 10:00 a.m. until the time of the service. Interment will be private.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Hospice & Community Care of Lancaster.

“ *Our deepest sympathies to Bonnie and all of the family on Ron's passing. Have fond memories working with Ron during our Rockwell/Sensus years and his mentorship as I was growing up in the business. Was able to travel with Ron on numerous occasions and enjoyed the friendship and family talks even more than business. Also, a couple of personal visits with him and Bonnie. Those are the things we'll cherish until we meet again. God Bless & Rest in Peace. Thanks for the memories!

“ Bonnie, Ronda, Chris, and Rusty I am so sad to learn that Ron has passed. He was a great neighbor to Mike and me. We admired how he and Bonnie raised you kids to be wonderful people. I loved how he stuck with the Steelers through both good and bad seasons! Most of all I saw how much he loved his family. I hope that fond memories will bring you peace.

“ I worked with Ron at Sensus for about 6 or 7 years before he retired. I went on my first sales ride along with him in Pennsylvania. I was new to the role I was in at the time and nervous to meet Ron. He made me feel welcome immediately and we laughed and joked the whole way to our first visit.

When we got there, it was clear that Ron had known the customer for years and they were like best of friends. The customer started complaining that the product from our company wasn't working right. He went on and on for a good 20 min and I got nervous that we were going to lose his business. I watched Ron as the customer complained about the problems and all the extra work they had created for him. Ron's face got red with anger every sentence the customer spoke. Finally, Ron exploded with some "kind" words for the company we worked for. That shocked me because normally in that situation a sales person instinct is to defend the company they worked for. Not Ron, he began defending his customer and commiserating with him saying the company had really messed up and should never have caused the problems for our customer that they did.

Well after that, I was convinced we were losing the business and that Ron didn't know what the heck he was doing. After Ron's rant about our company to the customer, he went on to explain that they had fixed the problem with a new release of the product. Ron said to the customer "Trust me it's all better now". The customer said, "Well I don't know about the company but I trust you Ron. I will give you a purchase order for the new and improved product".

I couldn't believe what I heard and saw. The customer was going to buy more product from a company that had caused him problems previously. But he was only doing it because of his relationship with Ron!

I learned that day, that relationships are more important than anything. If you treat people right, they will return the favor. Ron had many great relationships throughout his life and I certainly value the one I had with him. You will be missed Ron!
