“ My name is Eldon Turner, Ronnie and I was roommate at my first military duty station at Davis Monthon AFB Tucson AZ, back in 1972 - 1973. As I remember Ronnie was a ballistic missile analyst technician assigned to the 570th sms. I was a missile facility technician. He was a slender, blondish hair guy, not one to be loud. I remember the first car he bought, a army like green AMC hornet! He would try to get out and try golfing, I just wasn't meant to be a golfer. However we did enjoy hiking and he taught me how to ride a horse, something I still enjoy doing. I'm deeply saddened and send my condolences to his family in his passing. It was a honor to be his friend and roommate. Sincerely, Eldon C. Turner, Savannah Ga.
