All the years of knowing you starting from our days at university of Pittsburgh, TWC and years spent chatting over the phone and in person you always stressed your love for your mom. I'm going to keep you and your entire family in prayer. This is a hard loss and a tough season in the valley of life. I pray you God's peace and strength to bare it all from here on out. “ I'm so sorry for the loss of this phenomenal woman. My memory of her was her visit to Spain to see her son and how much she enjoyed the experience. She was always so proud of her son Dsrryl and so full of love and joy. My deepest sympathies to all the children and grandchildren. Keep your memories close and your family closer. Miss Rosa would want that for you all.

“ Dear Thomas Family,

My deepest sympathy to your family. Rosa was a very special woman with a heart for our Lord. When I worked in guest services at the SOP I would escort her to dialysis. We always had good conversations and at Christmas I would share homemade treats with her . Rosa was a strong woman with a big heart. She pain free and once again with her loved ones. Bye Rosa until me meet again.

*Sincerely,
