“ I worked with Bini for 10 years at Calloway. She was one of the most principled, hard-working people I know. Even during her treatments, when I'm sure she felt completely spent, she never complained nor asked for special treatment—not once. I marveled at her attitude and tenacity through it all.

Through our frequent chats (and the multitude of photos in her office - including all of Shayla's school pictures in chronological order) it was evident that her love and devotion to her children and grandchildren was unwavering. She shared proud mom moments when Chris landed a new job and when Shayla completed cosmetology school.

She loved the beach, rock bands, spending time with her family and cooking. And she was a very good cook! Her packed leftover lunches paled in comparison to everyone else's. When delicious aromas wafted into the adjoining offices, we all knew Bini was at lunch. I can't tell you how many times I asked for the recipe. Of course, like most great cooks, she never used one. She told me, "I just add a little of this and a little of that."

I will remember her with fondness and admiration. She will be missed.

“ I am sorry for the loss of your daughter, mother, sister. I am glad I got to work Sabina these last few months at the Jay Group. I will always remember how excited she was to go to the concert with her daughter at Hershey. I think it was for Disturbed. She was lit up from ear to ear. She was a great asset to our team in Client Services. I will keep your family in my prayers.

I was honored to have made your mothers acquaintance while working at the Jay Group. She spoke often about both of you and always talked about what a good cook her son was. Our time with her was so short but she impacted everyone of us. We will miss her too.
