

Sally Ella Readinger

August 16, 2017

Sally Ella Douglas Readinger left this life peacefully, Wednesday, August 16, 2017 in Lancaster, PA. A Memorial Service will be held Woodcrest Villa Eagle Commons the afternoon of October 28th, 2017.

Sally was born in Terre Haute, IN on September 29, 1919 to Elmer and Juanita Douglas. She was married to the late Leslie Frederick Readinger on July 24, 1945. She earned a scholarship to attend the Herron School of Art and Design for a year following high school.

She was a devoted wife and mother as well as a talented artist and seamstress. She made family homes in Fort Wayne, IN; Maumee, OH; Easton PA; and lastly Lancaster, PA. As a resident at Woodcrest Villas, she took part in many activities. She made repairs to the American flag at Woodcrest, learned to line dance in her 80's, enjoyed water aerobics into her 90's, painted with her watercolor group weekly, joined in book discussions with the reading group, and enjoyed playing Phase 10 with friends. As a member of Highland Presbyterian Church she was active in Presbyterian Women. She was ordained as a Deacon at 1st Presbyterian Church in Fort Wayne, IN.

Sally is survived by her two daughters, Rebecca Burmester of Raleigh, NC and Marjorie Masci of Highland Heights, OH as well as six grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Sally will be remembered for her beautiful smile and cheerful attitude.

Memorial gifts may be made to: The Mennonite Home Communities or to the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation.

Tribute Wall

“ Sally Ella Readinger

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM