“ I just learned about Sam's death. Hard to be sorry for him, as he is in a wonderful place, but sorry for you, Ruth, and for Daniel and Kitty and the boys. For Ruth especially to adjust to life without him, we pray for God's grace. It is harder, also, when it was not expected -- no prolonged illness that showed he was entering his heavenly home.

We thank God for his life and his commitment to our Savior.
