

Scarlett Falu

September 15, 2022

Scarlett Falu, 7, transitioned, with her family by her side on Thursday, September 15, 2022 to join her loving mother. Born in Lancaster, PA, she was the daughter of Carlos L. Falu, Jr. and the late Tianna M. Cobb who transitioned in July.

Scarlett was pure. The purest of love with no malice, hurt or neglect. All she knew was love. She was sassy like her mom and commanded respect with every room she rolled in.

She did not say words, but she said a lot. Born and given one week to live, Scarlett always felt love from her family and went on to live 7.5 years.

Her strength was felt early on in her life, while taking a trip to the Poconos with her father and grandmother, she laughed out loud. This was a signal to her family of her strength.

In addition to her father, Scarlett is survived by her brother, Carter L. Falu, grandparents, Alexis M Riley and Ramon Bracero and Carlos L. Falu, Jr. and Tanya Almestica, Aunt Jalyynn Bracero, uncle, Jose L. Fuentes and great-grandparents, Maria Laboy, Luz Almestica, Arnaldo Silva, and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend Scarlett's Celebration of Life

“ A beautiful soul is being laid to rest today. Anyone that knew Scarlett knew what unconditional love is. Her smile lit up the room. She was so sassy with out even saying a word. She got it from her mama. We've had the pleasure of knowing her from a long distance relationship that started with her mom in 2015 and officially met in person in 2016. She is with her mom now and that brings comfort to my mama heart.
