“ My condolences to Dwayne, families, and friends... 🙏🙏🙏 Thank you, Dwayne for allowing me to visit our dear friend, Scott, two weeks ago particularly on my birthday. I am blessed that we spent quality time together. I remember, while Scott and I were freshmen at Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, he walked towards a table where I ate in the cafeteria, introduced himself, and asked me if he could join me in eating and chatting. I said to myself that he must be a nice person, I immediately introduced myself and, from there, we chatted almost every day particularly about politics. We realized we had common interests. That's how our friendship blossomed. One of our memories was that we had a blast at our 30th anniversary high school reunion in 2007 chatting and laughing. Included are several pictures that were taken at this event. You could see Scott was best dressed. I never forgot that. Scott, I miss you 🤝👍
