

Shirley W. Bruggeman

February 22, 2016

Shirley W. Bruggeman, 89, of Willow Street, PA, passed away on Monday evening, February 22, 2016 at Arbor View at Willow Valley following a brief illness. Born in Bellefont, PA, she was the daughter of the late Harry Maxwell and Edna Wyan Wood. Shirley was the wife of James L. Bruggeman, together they celebrated their 34th anniversary on September 26, 2015.

Shirley graduated from the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago and did academic work at Northwestern University, and worked as a Real Estate Broker in Chicago. She was a former member of the Swedish Covenant Church in Chicago and a former Deacon at Memorial Park Presbyterian Church in Alison Park, PA. She enjoyed making floral designs.

Shirley will be lovingly remembered by her husband, James, her children; Samuel, (Debra) Jones of Sarasota, FL and Susan Eisenhart of Seattle, WA, her step-daughter; Joan Pallazo of San Diego, CA and her six grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a step-son, David Bruggeman.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to Celebrate her Life in a Memorial Service to be held at Grace Church at Willow Valley, 300 Willow Valley Square on Sunday, February 28, 2016 at 1:00 p.m. with Pastor John F. Smith officiating. Inurnment will be held at Allegheny County Cemetery, Pittsburgh, PA. The family will receive friends on Sunday from 12:30 p.m. until the time of service.

If desired, memorials may be sent in Shirley's memory to the Mennonite Central Committee, 21 S. 12th St., P.O. Box 500, Akron, PA 17501-0500.
