“ Oh what a celebration there must be going on in heaven since you arrived. My fondest memories of you was being in the kitchen at Aunt Wanneta's and riding "shot Gun" with you, that's when little kids could sit in the front seat. You would tell me I had to stay up so you would stay up. If rumor has it correct, you drove the get away car when my mom kidnaped us off the side walk in Coatesville as my Dad refuse to bring us back. You ladies put the G in "Girl Power". Growing up in COGIC I loved to hear cousin Paul play the organ and you sing a mighty song of praise like no other. I tell anyone Kirk Franklin & the family didn't do it first, the Lucas family was doing it big back in the day. I will forever hear your hearty laugh in my minds eye. I am at peace knowing you are peaceful....love you Cuz - Armenta Washington

“ My Mother (Marilyn Vollrath) and I would like to offer our Thoughts and Prayers to the family of Shirley. Mom and Shirley were 'room-mates' at Masonic Village. We were so pleased to know Shirley - the time seems so short. She brought a light to our lives and she is missed. Mom misses her a lot! When Mom would come or go from their room, she would go beside Shirley and hold her hand and talk to her and Shirley would squeeze Mom's hand. That was all - it was the best either of them could do. We will miss her very much, but believe that she has indeed gone to Glory.

Sincerely, Marilyn Vollrath & Lois Vollrath Mena
