

Steele "Rob" Roberts Sellers II

March 2, 2021

Steele "Rob" Roberts Sellers II, 70, who resided in the "Honner House" in Willow Street, PA, passed away on Tuesday, March 2, 2021. Born in Detroit, Michigan, he was the son of the late Steele Lamb Sellers and Jeannie L. Lomedieu Sellers Taylor.

After attending Franklin & Marshall College, Rob worked for over 40 years in the construction industry, beginning his career at CH&E Construction. Earlier in life, Rob was a co-owner at the Orange Street Tea Shop and held various positions in the restaurant industry.

Rob was an avid hockey and football fan. He followed his home teams, the Detroit Red Wings and the Detroit Lions. During his free time, Rob loved to cook and was famous for his Eggs Benedict. He was often found in his garage working on his beloved Austin Healy Bugeye Sprite with his dear friend, Henry Welch. He was an avid reader and he and Deb enjoyed watching more television series and movies than necessary. Above all, Rob loved his four-legged children, past and present.

He is survived by his loving wife, Deborah Sellers, his sister, Claire Brown (Wesley) of Greenville, SC, his brother Charles Sellers (Gayle) of Washougal, WA, along with numerous loved cousins, nieces, and nephews.

Rob was an extraordinary person and all who crossed his path hold a special place in their heart for him.

Funeral Services will be private.

Contributions to your favorite charity may be made in Rob's name.

Tribute Wall

“ Steele "Rob" Roberts Sellers II

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

“ Deb,

I am so sad to hear of Rob's passing. I hope you stay strong and know you are loved. Sending hugs and prayers.

*All the best,
Dawn Risser*

Dawn Risser - March 08, 2021 at 10:23 PM

Thank you, Dawn.

Deborah Sellers - March 09, 2021 at 08:10 AM

“ Deb,

I was so sorry to hear of Rob's passing. I'm glad that we were able to visit last summer. I know he and my grandfather are having a fine time together, having lots of laughs!

Kate

Kate Hemmerich - March 08, 2021 at 07:04 PM

DH

“ Aunt Deb
My thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of loss. I hope that you can take peace in happy memories of Rob and your life together. Please know that I am here and that I love you.
Your name sake,
Debi Hatfield

Debi Hatfield - March 08, 2021 at 01:11 PM

DA

“ So sorry to hear of your husband's passing, Deb. Hugs and prayers to you and your family during this difficult time.

Deb Anspach

Debora Anspach - March 07, 2021 at 06:40 PM

JG

“ Rob was a great friend, hadn't seen much of him lately. Rob was in part responsible for my introduction to a large group of to-be-friends when I first moved to Lancaster in the 70s. I had recently graduated from art school and was more or less a hippy coming to town searching for something to stabilize my developing life-style. One summer evening there he was, was it Pine Street, on a corner. Being a welcoming sort he brought me immediately into the group he was hanging-out with there. Most of them became good friends over the years and remain so today. I once said to him what an important moment that was. He colored to pink. "Jerry, that's what friends and life are for, don't you think. C'mon buddy. Does that sound like Rob Sellers? You bet it does.

Jerry Greiner - March 07, 2021 at 11:29 AM

KC

“ So sorry to hear of Rob's passing. I remember him very well from the beloved Orange Street Tea Shop. His welcoming greeting, warm smile and conversation helped make that tea shop my home away from home. Condolences to all who cared for Rob.

Karen Carnabucci - March 07, 2021 at 10:19 AM

KC

“ I first met Rob when I was a kid at the Orange Street Tea Shop. My Aunt Zoe lived there and had her own table in the corner. Then later i knew him through CH&E. He hired me to do a final cleaning on a construction job. I did mostly residential cleaning so this was a big deal for me and my first one. I just remember how kind he was and complimentary. Then he met Deb and they married. At this point I'd known Rob for 20 years or more as well as Deb. I remember giving Deb a thumbs up on her choice. 2 of my favorite people getting together. It's been a joy to watch you both over the years at your pool. Rob passed on my birthday which I take as an honor and hope that he no longer suffers. Godspeed my friend

Katy Conlin - March 06, 2021 at 07:04 AM

CF

“ I was saddened to hear of the passing of my neighbor Rob. He always had a smile on his face, was a kindly neighbor & had a greeting for each dog I have had. My yellow lab Buddy had his first swim ever in your pool. You will be missed. Deb my thoughts & prayers continue with you & your family in all the days to come. Cathy & Hobbes

Cathy Fichtner - March 05, 2021 at 09:30 PM

“ Many fond memories of Rob ,our neighbor.Will miss our talks over the backyard fence.He always had a "hello" whenever he saw us out in the yard and inviting us to enjoy the pool. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Deb and we will be here for you.
Sue and Bill White

Susan White - March 05, 2021 at 07:58 AM

CF

I was saddened to hear of the loss of your beloved husband Rob. He always had a smile on his face & cared about us neighbors! He enjoyed inviting neighborhood dogs to play in his backyard. My dog Buddy had his first swim ever in your pool! Deb my thoughts & prayers remain with you & your family. His pups are sure going to miss him as well. Cathy Fichtner & Hobbes

Cathy Fichtner - March 05, 2021 at 09:25 PM

WC

“ Love and respect.

will campbell - March 04, 2021 at 07:19 AM

SG

“ Sandy Gambone lit a candle in memory of Steele "Rob" Roberts Sellers II

Sandy Gambone - March 03, 2021 at 02:10 PM