“ Stevie was a dear friend to Dawn & me. Curt and I have been friends for almost 50 years. When he met and married Stevie she fit right in. I remember how she glowed the day of the wedding. We visited as often as we could find the time to drive to Delaware. We had lunch in Reading only a couple of months ago. At the time the discussion centered on Curt's life threatening medical problems. We never even considered that we would lose Stevie first. How very sad and shocking.

We will be there for the viewing in the morning but will be unable to stay for the service since I have an appointment with my cardiologist at 12:30 in Reading. We can only offer our deepest sympathy to Curt and all the kids and extended family.

“ Stevie was a very close friend of mine. She was always happy and always there for your friends and family. I met her through BINGO and that was the greatest prize I ever got. Her and Curt welcomed me into their home and their hearts. I will remember her everyday and that smile of hers. I miss her so much that I don't even have words to explain. I lost a friend and heaven got another ANGEL!!!!
