

Steven Bloom

October 24, 2016

Steven Bloom, born, November 1, 1953 entered into a rest of peace on Monday, October 24, 2016. He was a beloved father to 2 daughters, Stephanie and Danielle, beloved grandfather of 9 and beloved uncle of many nieces and nephews. Fur parent to Chelsea and friend to many.

He is survived by his sibling, Linda Bachman and preceded in death by his brother, Tim Bloom and his parents, Tim & Dolly Bloom.

He was a landscaper by trade but a business trader by heart, owning his own buy and sell business. Those who knew him he was a wheeler and a dealer. Steve had several nicknames: Stevio, daddio, and Bloomie. He also had many traits: funny, helpful, caring, bargain finder and someone you could count on, but also stubborn at times (a Bloom trait). This all added up to a good person.

He is already missed and always will be.

He loved his family, friends and fur babies. He enjoyed having a good time especially at Halloween, on his birthday and favorite holiday.

Our family would like to invite everyone for one more good time at Steve's Celebration of Life and Memorial Service on Saturday, December 3, 2016 at 2:00 p.m. at Hawthorne Community House, 99 Dickens Drive, Lancaster, PA 17603.

Please feel free to bring memories, pictures, and of course good stories as Steve would say "Peace Out".

In lieu of flowers, donations will be accepted towards the cost of cremation,

c/o The Groffs Family Funeral Home, 528 W. Orange Street, Lancaster, PA 17603.

Thank you one and all. Contact Info: Holly Bachman 717-305-0201,

“ I didn't know Steven as an adult, but when we were both little children, my Dad used to take my sister, Susie and me to visit Uncle Tim and Aunt Dolly on Church Street. Steven was the youngest of his siblings, Linda, Timmer and Steven. Those days are forever imprinted in my memory. RIP Steven - my hope is that there were many people there to welcome you into your new world!
