Normal 0 false false false EN-US X-NONE X-NONE Terry L. Kline, 63, of Drumore, Pa., died after a lengthy illness Tuesday, June 16, 2010, at Mount Joy Hospice Center of Lancaster County. He was born in Lancaster to Preston Kline, of Landisville, and the late Mary Jane Mehaffey Kline.

Terry worked as a custodian for Penn Manor School District for two years; previously he was self-employed as a carpet installer and worked many years at Certified Carpet. He learned his trade by working with his dad at the Weave Shop in Lancaster. He was a graduate of J.P. McCaskey High School and served in the U.S. Navy. Terry and his longtime partner, Tina Venesky, loved boating together on the Chesapeake Bay. He was witty, with a quick sense of humor, and was a good, hardworking man. He also enjoyed woodworking, making model boats and fixing up his boat, named "True Healing."

In addition to his father and partner, Terry is survived by brothers Barry Kline, husband of Mary Jo, of Lancaster, and Craig Kline, husband of Shirley, of Landisville; and a sister, Debra Bramble, wife of John Richard, of Ephrata. Services will be private at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Terry's memory to Hospice of Lancaster County, 685 Good Drive, P.O. Box 4125, Lancaster, PA 17604-4125.
