I am soo blessed to have known Thelma.. I knew her a short time and wished I had known her so much longer. I visited Thelma to help out and we soon became friends. We had many laughs, lots of hugs ,watched" the Price is Right ",exercised together ,talked about the olden days, even ate some goodies .I remember her love for her beloved cat "Charlie" and he loved her too and stayed by her side.Of course her love for her children and grandchildren was very apparent. I will miss her sweetness and spunky spirit ,she was and is a treasure .I believe she is in heaven and will be happy to be with her again.
