“ Met Mr.McVey as a student at Hempfield High School. Great English teacher and always there for the students in many ways beside English class. I again met up with Mr. McVey in 2005 at Pleasant View. I ran the bank branch there. We had many discussions on all subjects of the life we live in. We often did not agree with each other, but loved each other for our respect for other opinions. I learned so much about Tom and about life from him. What a WONDERFUL man God has with him now.

Love ya man,
