“ My deepest condolences to you, Barb. You know how much my Dad, Bob Madden, cared about you and Tom. He would be so sad for your loss. You two were great friends to him over the years. I still remember when Tom and some of his friends were here on a golf outing, probably in the early 2000's. The world has lost another good man. May you find comfort in his memory. Marilyn Madden

“ *Dear Barb and Family,
We are sadden to hear of Tommy's passing. We have lost a friend and a musician who could light up the stage. His voice was music to our ears and made us move to the music. The gathering in December will be, now more than ever, a treasured memory. Even though Tommy is not with us God has gained an angel with a beautiful voice. Rest in Peace Tommy you will be missed and always in our thoughts.

“ I played in my first band with Tom in 1964 and we played together for over 50 years on and off and we played together for 7 years before he retired from singing in 2016. More than a band mate, Tom and I were very good friends and always had great respect for each other. We talked on the phone on a regular basis from the time he quit the band until recently. My wife and I got to see and talk with Tom at Hershey about 2-1/2 months ago and about 4-5 weeks ago Barry Stumpf and I visited him at Hershey. Both visits were enjoyable just seeing and talking to him and he was always positive. I always looked up to Youngie as a great singer and was always honored to play in a band with him. I will miss him and will never forget him. Your true friends Junie, Rose, and Rich Schnader

I knew Tom from my teens as a very soulful singer and band mate. We wrote "I couldn't last a day without your love" in CLB. A great honor to have known him. See you in heaven Tom!

Tom and I did both of the deployments in '67 & '68. He was a great shipmate and steaming partner (slang for liberty buddies) and a stellar Fire Control Technician. One of our forays ashore was immortalized in the 2nd deployment cruise book with a picture of us in the front seat of a water taxi heading for the beach in Bangkok. He was one of the guys who made our FT gangs on both deployments so very special. Strike below sailor, you have stood the good watch and are relieved. We have the watch. Rest in Peace Tom. You were a great friend and shipmate.
