“ Tim was a good friend for many years. I first met Tim when my family moved from the Saint Joe's parish to Sacred Heart parish and resided on Elm Street. Tim, his brother Dick, and mom and dad lived down the street at the corner of Elm and Chestnut. Tim and I were in the same grade in school and went on to graduate together from LCHS in 1971. I remember Tim as an easy going guy, always friendly, loved to laugh and fun to be with. Tim and I and all the kids from the neighborhood loved going to Reynolds Jr High to play touch football and even some tackle on the narrow field surrounding the school. A big highlight for us was sometimes using the F&M football field a few blocks away. If we wanted to gain some yards during a tackle football game we handed the ball to Tim since he was bigger than all of us and could carry 4 or 5 of us along as he rambled down the field. Those memories bring a smile to my face as I write this. One of my greatest memories of Tim was him bringing a cute mixed puppy to our house one day which my family eventually adopted. We named him Shane and he was the best pet we ever had. I am forever thankful for Tim for introducing that puppy into our lives. I had so many great memories of hiking out to Bausman with Shane and even as far as Conestoga Memorial Park so he could run free. We became great buds thanks to Tim. Tim of course loved Shane too. They were lasting friends. I am unable to attend Tim's services as I reside in Oklahoma. But I send my prayers to Tim for everlasting life in God's divine light. My sincerest heart felt condolences to his brother Dick and the entire Young family. I haven't seen Tim in many years as my 30 year Air Force career took me far from Lancaster. But I cherish the many memories from our days as young kids and as high school friends. We had some great times just being kids. Tim's passing is a sad time for me as with so many of his friends and family. We will all miss him. God speed Tim and rest in peace. We will meet again someday. Your friend, Steve Doersom
