“ I got a sinking feeling after calling Todd's cell phone today (April 24, 2021) and reaching someone else's voicemail. I'm so sorry to hear of Todd's passing, and saddened even more that it happened over a year ago. I have so many wonderful memories of the time I spent with Todd at Shippensburg, and I will miss catching up with him every once in a while. As someone else noted, Todd talked of fishing and outdoors, but very dearly loved his family. My sincere condolences to his family.

“ Shirley and Mike,
When I heard the sad news of Todd's passing, I immediately thought of a story you had told me many years ago. You were standing at the kitchen sink washing dishes and you saw Todd zoom by your window from his second floor window above you. He had jumped out the window because he wanted to fly. Now he got his wish - he is soaring with the angels. Sending much love and many hugs,
Michael and Virginia

“ Todd was the most sweetest and caring man I ever met. He would give a complete stranger the shirt off his back if they needed it. I have never met a man like him before. I know he is watching over his family and friends. RIP
Todd you will definitely be missed by all and loved by all

“ To Todd's family. Where do I start Todd was larger than life, always willing to give anybody a helping hand even if he himself needed one. Todd was always sending his fishing pictures and talking about hunting, fishing and his precious family he was always talking about his beloved wife Amy and his children. He is one of a kind and will be greatly missed.

My sincerest condolences to Amy and his family!!

“ Oh my. How does one articulate years of friendship and experiences in just a few words? I met Todd in Jr High where we began developing a tight group of friends. Together, over the years, we wrestled, visited each other at our colleges, hunted, camped, fished and fished. We laughed in abundance, argued, and looked forward to the next adventures. Todd was competitive with his buddies. He had a big, kind, and generous heart and easily made friends. It is such a hard thing to part with childhood friends, yet rich, deep, and meaningful memories will always remain. Farewell friend, you are loved.

“ Todd was my grandparents 'across the street' neighbor. I will never forget the friendly (and loud) "Hey Cecelia!" He would share with me every time we'd cross paths. Home lane will never be the same without Todd.

So many fond memories of Todd.....and yes, Home Lane will not be the same. I will miss his always cheerful and exuberant, "Hey, Marie!"

“ So many wonderful memories with Todd. As an incoming freshman at Shippensburg State, Todd took me under his wing like a brother. Welcoming me into his home, introducing me to so many people. Huge heart, huge smile, do anything for you, and the kind of man I always want at my back. Rest In Peace buddy and I sure hope you realized the impact you had on me and anyone blessed to call you a friend 🙏🏻✌️
