“ I knew Tracy in high school. She was always a positive person and beacon of light. Spending time with her in Dewey was when Tracy was happiest. Frank and Verla made all of Tracy’s friends feel right at home at the beach house. Wonderful memories were made there for so many of us thanks to Tracy. I have no doubt that spending time with her children anywhere - sand or not - was where she was most happy as an adult. In high school, she knew she wanted to have a career and be a mom. And a great mom she was. While I haven’t seen Tracy in years, I wanted to let her kids know the imprint Tracy left on so many lives. Continue in Tracy’s tradition. Spread love and add many friends along life’s journey.
