“ A Farewell to Aunt June.....

*The June who I remember well
Was from 1950-60
A pretty blue eyed blonde with flashing smile
Most people thought her nifty.*

*A handsome pilot at her side
Became an engineer
They married; then four kids popped out
Their love was so sincere.*

*Her mid-century modern home
Is one I'd love today
A purple toilet, tub and sink
Not to mention the "breeze way".*

*And now that June has gone
I find that I am muddled
It's left me as the oldest one
And now, I am disgruntled.*

*However, I must tell you, June
You've run the race for 90 years and won
By any measure I would say
"Aunt June, JOB WELL DONE!"*

Love to the memory of June, to Barbara, Curt and Randy.

“ Dear Barbara, Randy, & Curt: It was a pleasure staying with your Mother, and spending time with her. She was a very gracious & beautiful lady inside and out. She thanked me for helping her when I helped her into bed. She loved you, children and was always glad when you stopped by.

She appreciated all you did for her, especially Barbara. You were a good daughter to your Mother. May you be blessed. We both liked the color purple. I will always remember her fondly.
