“ Dear Shelley & Gary,

So sorry for your loss. Our mothers were strong ladies who loved and supported their children through some tough times, like the losses of our fathers. We will always miss and wish we could talk to our mothers, but we will always have to hold onto the wonderful memories we have of them.

*Love,
Brenda & David Haverstick*

“ Dear Shelley & Gary,

I've known your mother since we (Shelley & I) were in kindergarten. Both of our mothers were very strong ladies who loved their children and always supported them throughout their lives. When I visited your mother at Lancashire, she always talked about all of you (Mike included). She loved you very much and was proud of you. We miss our mothers and wish we could talk with them, but the memories of our them will live on forever. Our sympathy to your family for your loss. Love, Brenda & David

“ Gary & Shelley,
I am so sorry for your loss. Your mother was a strong and independent woman all her life. Virginia was always welcoming to me and I have many fond memories of her: visiting New York City where we wheedled her into going to see Follies, the scary trip home from Atlantic City, when after a fun dinner at Zabar's, that manic escaped convict almost 'got' us, a Christmas Eve ride to view Xmas lights, to names just a few. The one thing you both must remember is how fiercely proud she was of both of you and the unwavering love that she will eternally have for both of you. When I used to visit her with magazines, those two things were always apparent. The loss is great, but her memory will always hold comfort. Love, David
