“ I met Ginny when she joined our troupe of senior line dancers, Buffalo Gals and Sidekicks. The group attended classes to learn new dances and then performed at nursing homes and festivals. We also formed friendships and got together socially for parties and lunches Ginny was an active dancer for the rest of her life by attending line dances in the surrounding area in the evenings. She is well known on the dance floor, mixing it up with people more than half her age. Her smile and energy will be missed by all those who saw her as a regular. My condolences to her family and her other groups of friends.
