

W. Roy Phillips Jr.

December 31, 2016

W. Roy Phillips, Jr., 79, of Devon, PA passed away suddenly Saturday, December 31, 2016 at Paoli Hospital with his nephew, John and case manager, Luz by his side. Roy was the son of the late W. Roy and Mildred M. Phillips and beloved brother of the late Ann P. Leibrick.

Roy lived and worked at the Elwyn Institute for many years. Following Elwyn, Roy worked at the King Street Grille, where the staff and patrons were very important to him. He retired in 2014. Prior to Devon, Roy lived in Paoli and Malvern where he was an active community member and enjoyed attending the Paoli Baptist Church. He had many happy adventures with his great friend Mike, and was particularly close to his case manager, Luz.

Roy loved Hershey Park, a place he visited annually from when he was a small child through the summer of 2016. Roy especially enjoyed the Carousel, Dry Gulch Railroad and recalling happy times with family at the park. Roy loved trains, particularly older steam engines, listening to the radio, watching the Lawrence Welk Show and was a loyal fan of the Phillies and Eagles.

Roy is survived by his nephews, John Leibrick (Beth) and Ken Leibrick (Patty) his great nieces, Chloe and Rebecca Leibrick, and his cousins, Valerie Martz and Bill Tingley (Margie).

A private family service will be held on Friday, January 6, 2017 at St. Paul's United Church of Christ Cemetery, in Herndon, PA.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Roy's name can be made to Paoli Baptist Church, 33 Lancaster Ave., Paoli PA 19301.

Tribute Wall

“ W. Roy Phillips Jr.

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

“ Roy will be missed at Paoli Baptist. I remember how he loved practicing with the choir on Wed. nights. His family has been in our thoughts and prayers. Cindy and Stan Mauldin

Cindy Mauldin - January 30, 2017 at 08:43 PM

“ Roy Phillips was a wonderful man. Our lives are richer for his presence. I will miss my uncle but am comforted knowing he is with his mom, dad and sister again.

John Leibrick - January 07, 2017 at 03:59 AM