“ May his children - Dianne, Dean, and Dennis - find peace in the goodness that he shared with them. I remember him for many wonderful things he did but especially the house he built for my parents in East Lampeter when he was a contractor. I think I must have driven him crazy when we would go to the site as he was building it and I kept asking him how soon will it be a house? And helping him to plant carnations in the fields and work in the greenhouses he owned. A very kind and thoughtful gentleman.
