

Warren Jordan

November 27, 2020

Warren Jordan, 50, passed away unexpectedly on Friday, November 27, 2020. Born in Brooklyn, NY, he was the son of the late Walter Washington and Helen Jordan. He was married to his love, Carmella Thomas Jordan for 13 years.

Warren worked as a machinist on farm equipment at Case New Holland Agriculture for 5 years. A devout Christian, he could quote the Bible from start to finish and lived his life willing to give anyone the shirt off his back. He had a knack for discovering things that other people did not want. Warren was always there to lend a helping hand, whether he was asked or not and was known as the “Mayor” of the neighborhood block. “Pop Pop” adored playing with his grandchildren and was a great provider to his family. He also had an incredible appetite!

He is survived by his daughter, Brittany Jordan, Brooklyn, NY; his stepdaughter, Jasmine Thomas, Lancaster; his sisters: Terracer Jordan, Pamela Jackson, both of Brooklyn, NY, Tammy Jordan, Mt. Laurel, NJ, and Patricia Sholtz, Florida; his brother, Walter Washington, Brooklyn, NY; and his grandchildren (who were his buddies): Zhyviar Wright, Breidyn Wright, and Lundin Been.

A private Family Funeral Service will be held with Pastor Larry Avignone officiating. The family invites all friends and loved ones to participate by watching the live stream of the service beginning at 4:00 p.m. on Saturday, December 5, 2020 by clicking this link <https://client.tribucast.com/tcid/5033834>

“ Always so kind, he taught me alot about work ethic and I always had a great time around him. He was a very bright soul and very fun to be around. He wasn't only just a family friend but he was my close friend too. I'll always remember hanging out and playing chess eating celery and peanut butter, You teaching me how to garden, and teaching me more about god, I still have the bible by way Warren I'll cherish it forever. You'll never be forgotten and you'll always have a place in my heart. One day we'll play chess again together I got really good too so i'll give you a run for your money. I love you.

“ Warren was always there for his friends always sharing his knowledge ,laughter and his helping hand he always care about others always wanting to help .

I remember him teaching my son how to play chest and it was serious business they had a day and a time it was their moment ...it was great to see him taking time of his day for my son.. not only that he created a little bible study time for our children's talking about the lord and cooking them snacks... I always had my door open and I remember him opening the door and screaming from downstairs heyyyyy eliiiiii !!!! Can I come up? Lol and when I was cooking asking me hey sis what you cooking save me some ,can I try it? Because one thing we all know he had a great appetite! But one thing I can say about Warren is that he loved and fear God with all his heart...he will be Always and forever missed! I know God is having a great time with him ...his heart was like a child like the bible say...

“ I'm going to miss you bro. From the laughs we shared at work, home bible studies and private conversations we shared on the phone. We had good times. I never imagined it would be cut so short. It hurts that your gone but there's no better place to be than in the presence of the Lord. Good bye my friend.

“ Dearly beloved bro warren - your obituary does a very good job capturing the kind of heart you had for people; it doesn't surprise me that you were called "The Mayor"; oftentimes when I'd come to visit you and we'd sit on your porch, our conversation would be constantly interrupted because you had to call out to every single person passing by, "hey, how you doing?" We met in Jan 2013 and even though health problems and various details only allowed you to be in a handful of our services, you also referred to me as your pastor and to our church as your church and I was honored that you saw us that way. Jerry and I treasured the times we'd come over to hang out with you, share the Word, pray and watch sports. I will always be proud to say that I saw the classic Game 7 of the 2016 NBA Finals at Warren Jordan's place. The love and dedication you had for your family was also speaking through you - this is a devastating loss for them but your God and Savior will be there for them as He was for you. I'm tearing up as I write this; death sucks, but this is why average folks like us have found grace and truth through Jesus Christ; it's for these literal, unexpected, jolting and heartbreaking scenarios, and Hallelujah that death doesn't have the last word. One of our last chats together was about your desire to go on outreach with us after your back was healed. We won't have that chance, brother, but you have left a lot of love behind you, and I'm confident that however Heaven works, you are watching and asking the Lord to facilitate His ministry through us, until that glorious Day when we meet again. Fraternally always in the Love and Brotherhood of Christ Jesus - Pastor Larry, Greater Grace Church, Manchester/PA
