

Warren W. Davison

April 15, 2014

Warren W. Davison, 84, of Lititz, PA, died early Wednesday morning, April 9, 2014, at Moravian Manor in Lititz, PA. Born on October 23, 1929 in Jamestown, New York, he was the beloved son of the late Wilfred C. Davison and Bertha A. Bush Davison of Celoron, New York.

Warren was a Licensed Land Surveyor and Engineer. He served in the United States Army in the Pentagon, Washington, D.C. and received the National Defense Service Medal. He achieved a full career in Engineering with S.J. Groves and Sons of Minneapolis, MN.

He was married to the late Thelma Stearns Davison MacLeod in December 1952. He is survived by their three children; Susan L. Davison Sheldon, and husband John C. Sheldon of Seneca Falls, New York, Warren A. Davison, of Mesa, Arizona and Richard C. Davison, of Niagara Falls, New York.

His four surviving grandchildren are Katherine L. Sheldon Blake of Staten Island, New York, Ashley E. Sheldon of Seneca Falls, New York, and Natalie and Emily Davison of Arizona.

Private family services will be held.

In honor of his life, please consider donations to the American Cancer Society.