“ I have very pleasant memories of my Uncle Wayne, who along with Aunt Elsie, enjoyed their dozens of nieces and nephews through the years. He was a quiet man but one who found his place in life through his friendships and workshop past-times. We kids always loved visiting our Grandma Sara Karr when we knew Uncle Wayne would be there. The picture attached was at one such family gathering in the mid 1950's. Uncle Wayne and Aunt Elsie are in the second row from the back far left. 12 of Wayne's 13 siblings along with their mother are in the picture, along with spouses and kids.

“ Fuzz and I will truly miss all the wonderful times sitting out with you watching the humming birds and talking about how our days went, the weather and just reminiscing about anything and everything . WE love you and miss you my dear friend and Uncle. Rest in peace with God and the Angels. Love Ann & Walter Burkhart Jr.
