“ Wes, so blessed to have shared time here with you. Met you through my father, "Pidge", while working with my sisters, Jen, and Cissy at Banzhofs Cafe. Good times, and definitely memorable. Shuffleboard, the dinners, dancing, watching the games. Always a good time, everyone had each others backs, no fighting! Ha! You better not, if Daddy didn't throw you out, someone else would!!! LOL! There was always laughter when you were around. Rest in Power my friend. My thoughts and prayers are with your family at this time. You, were a blessing indeed.

“ I've known Wes ever since we were little kids, and his smile has never changed his sense of humor just got better with age. Wes had that gift of making people laugh and helping them feel better about what they were going through at the time. I remember one time I was really going through something and I seen Wes and he started telling us a story it was so funny, Omg it just had me forget about what I was going through, but that's just how Wes was a loving, kind, compassionate and considerate person and I'm going to miss you so much. I will miss that million dollar smile that lit up a room, I'll miss hearing your jokes and your stories, most of all I'll miss you it won't be the same without you being here. Wes I love you . R.I.P..❤️❤️❤️😭😭😭 And to the family my condolences and prayers

“ Wow Wesley Hargrove...First Dee Dee and all the people in-between and now you.💔💔 Word of your passing really shook the old school and new school 7th ward.

Your life tho...You came from a God-Fearing Family of whom I had the pleasure of fellowshipping with you all back in my Ebenezer Baptist Church Sunday School days, you served your country, if I am not mistaken you retired early, you traveled, you even hit the lottery!

Small in stature but big in energy, personality, and that booming voice that no one could mistake. Your friends and following was wide and long which speaks for itself through all the trending vibrant Facebook pictures of you celebrating life with friends and family.

You will be missed and my hope is that your life testimony may be an inspiration to us all!

“ Wes's light will continue to shine. The time he's shared with us will always be. He ran his race and finished his course, with love, laughter, and dignity. He has now thrown down this thorny cross of life and has accepted his Crown of Glory, in a land that has no end. My sincerest condolences to Miss Rosetta, Sharon, Ann, Kurt, nephew Al, and great nieces. Let us all remember that as long as we have our memories of Wes, he'll never be gone. God bless you all.

“ I've known Wes for many years. He was one of most happy and caring people I ever met. He had a way of making those around him feel better no matter what was going on. He laughed a lot and made others laugh. Life never got him down. He was always Wes. Man you will really be missed on this side but I know you will continue to make them laugh on the other side.

I salute you; Semper Fi

“ Not even sure where to begin. I have known Wes just about my entire life (as long as I can remember). What a wonderful human being. When I say to you this man was always genuine, trust and believe, he was. No matter what the circumstance, he was always the same. We share a special bond and he would always remind me of this, not that he need too but he would always say "we share a nephew, Doris" and then many, many years later "we share some beautiful great Nieces, Doris". I just love Wes. He just had this way of always making you smile with that infectious smile he has. I thank God for the last encounter I had with him at the Moose celebrating his birthday. I could go on and on as many of us can with all the wonderful, fond and good memories we have but this space is limited. Too Mrs. Rosetta, Sharon, Andrea, Terrie, Nephew, Nieces and Great Nieces my prayers are with you and love each and every one of you. Wes lived his life to the fullest and would always remind me to live life to the fullest because tomorrow is not promised. He lived by these very words each and every day. I am really going to miss my friend, my first and only male road dog!! Let me just leave ya'll with this fond and hilarious memory!. Remember Sharon's masquerade party in Virginia? Well Wes and Donnie had us laughing until we cried. Only a few of ya'll will get this but it is a memory to last a lifetime. Until we meet again my friend! I LOVE YOU WES!!

“ Today is a very somber day for me and I am sure for many of us who knew West, and when I was made aware of his passing I took time out to reflect on every single encounter I could remember having with him, and what I took from that was wonderful and truly a refreshing experience and was a testament a roadmap on how people should live. His smile, his humor, his respect and consideration for others, living life to the fullest, living every day like it's your last day and bringing a hardy laugh or sometimes just a smile to someone's face even in the face of struggles he may have been going through at the time but you would have never even known cause he just made you feel so good inside and took your mind off of your worries.

Truly a friend and brother and black prince among men who shined his light of happiness on all he encountered and the valuable gift that he gave us all is precious but simple life is too short.
