“ The few times I had the pleasure of being around Bill I will always remember his smiling and funny personality. One day last summer my sister Tracy and I spent the day with Elaine and Bill at an auction. I'll never forget we were all 4 sitting together. A lamp came up for auction and Bill leaned over and whispered in Tracy's ear "that lamp is so ugly. I don't know why anyone would want to buy it!!!". The bid ended and when the runner brought the lamp to me that I won we all had the giggles. Bill you will be greatly missed by so many. My thoughts and prayers to Elaine and your family today and in the upcoming weeks ahead. ❤️🙏❤️

“ I had the privilege of spending some time With Bill and Elaine 2 weeks ago. We had a great day, which I will treasure those memories. The last thing Bill said to me was he "married the Sweetest girl". Melted my heart.

“ Uncle William, you were my favorite uncle. You always have a lot of patience, you were soft spoken, and you treated people with kindness. You had a way of making someone feel good about themselves. You were the one that taught me how to play pool. You are going to be missed, but you will never be forgotten. I love you!

Your niece,
Kathy

Bill was always one of our best friends while he lived in Massillon Ohio. He even drew the plans for the house that we've lived in for the past 48 years and he and Elaine stayed occasionally when they came back to visit his sister who lived near by. And we stayed with him and Elaine at their house a couple of times after they first went to Pennsylvania to live.

I don't know what caused us to lose touch, but have and will always regret that. I guess that's what we should learn from a tragedy like this. Friends like Bill and Elaine should always be treasured and held tight. There aren't enough of them. Please forgive us. We'll meet again old friend never to be separated and never to lose touch again. We love you both. Steve and Ermelinda Wyles.

I had the pleasure of growing up a few years with William and his family at Bartley, W. Va. He was always such a sweet and kind boy. I had a big crush on him, but he treated me like a sister and never made fun of me. I wish I could have known him as a grown man. My thoughts and prayers go out to the Stone family for their loss of a dear husband, father, brother and friend. May God give you peace and comfort as only he can give.
