

Yetta S. Gilbert

March 3, 2011

Yetta S. Gilbert, 95, of Lancaster, died on Wednesday evening, March 2, after a short illness.

She was the wife of the late John D. Gilbert, who died in 1995; they were married 56 years.

Born on the Lower East Side of Manhattan, she was the daughter of the late Zalman and Rachel Blumberg Strugatch.

She was raised in Philadelphia and was in the first three-year graduating class of Overbrook High School, where she was an active athlete in several sports. She retained an interest in sports her entire life.

She was a homemaker and also assisted her husband in his dental laboratory business.

Mrs. Gilbert was a longtime member of Temple Shaarai Shomayim and was active in its Sisterhood. She was also active in the Lancaster Chapter of Hadassah. She performed various volunteer activities, including assisting with Meals on Wheels deliveries well into old age.

She is survived by two sons: Mark E., of Lancaster, and Alan R., of Philadelphia. She was predeceased by four brothers and a sister.

Funeral Services will be held at 1:00 p.m. Sunday, March 06, 2011 at Congregation Shaarai Shomayim, 75 E. James St. Lancaster, with Rabbi Jack Paskoff officiating. Interment will take place in Shaarai Shomayim Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to Temple Shaarai Shomayim or Shaarai Shomayim Sisterhood 75 E. James St., Lancaster, PA 17602 or Hadassah, The Women's Zionist Organization of America 50 West 58th Street New York, NY 10019 “ YSG--Last of her generation, one of a kind.

Tribute Wall

“ Yetta S. Gilbert

October 22, 2023 at 11:34 PM

With love always.

Al R.

Alan Gilbert - March 13, 2011 at 11:46 PM

“ To Mr. Alan R. Gilbert:

By your initials I surmised you are argo. Very sorry about the loss of your Mother. Rejoice that you enjoyed her for many years.

I still miss mine although it has been many years. As I'm sure you will, I relish every moment I spent with her.

Please extend my condolences to your family.

Elle (MarlinsNut)

Elle Montesi - March 06, 2011 at 09:54 AM