“ I worked with Zoraida many years ago. She was always trying to teach me the Spanish language. I remember her following me one day and saying the same word over and over to where I thought she was calling me a name. o I finally asked her what she was calling me And she laughed so hard. And of course I needed to know what was so funny. She says "I am not calling you anything,I just said look". Here she just wanted me to look at something. And from then on we talked even more. She will be missed dearly. She was truly an awesome person at heart
